How to use this map

By bike or on foot

Yellow marks the designated cycle routes and other roads you'll find most useful when on your bike.

- Quiet road
- Cycle path
- Cyclable bridleway/track (may be bumpy or muddy)
- Footpath (no cycling please – thank you!)
- Foot or 'toucan' (foot+cycle) crossing
- Busy A road
- Busy B road
- Other busy road

If you're going further afield, these signs suggest helpful routes:

- Official cycle route (with number)
- Quiet lanes or tracks

By bus and train

The town maps show all the buses that run Monday–Friday. The area map highlights principal, frequent buses between towns. For other buses, see www.oxfordshire.gov.uk/publictransport.

On the town maps, the lozenge symbols mark bus stops.

- These services stop in both directions.
- These services stop in one direction only.

On the area map, the dotted lines show the route of the bus.

- Bus route
- Railway with station

Finding your way around

- Schools and other landmarks
- Shopping area
- Bike shop
- Bike parking
