The picturesque café has also received a new plumage, renovating the interiors with a clean rustic look. Visitors will find plenty of fresh flowers adorning the tables and quirky bird boxes on the walls.

The Café garden is decked with picnic tables for visitors to soak up the sun, keep an eye on the parrots and to enjoy a cuppa or two.

Birdland Manager, Simon Blackwell says: "We are really pleased with how well the Flamingo Point Café is doing after its renovation. We have had a great response to the new locally sourced menu and the inside is looking very inviting.

He continues: "We are looking forward to creating new groups and birthday party menus and to hosting seasonal events like summer BBQs."

Food served at the Flamingo Point Café is sourced locally from the Cotswolds area and is cooked fresh daily ensuring delicious fare. Birdland Park & Gardens is open daily from 10am.
